

Vision

To become the most innovative facilitator and social entrepreneur in creating Sustainable Development to achieve MDG through social performances development of the communities

Mission

Goals: Design, Organize and implement participatory training & development ,capacity building and awareness for women and youth to empower them to apply appropriate Technology and ICT to develop their skills and house hold productivity and achieving socio economic development at house hold level through sustainable livestock and agro base development activities in their environment to eradicate poverty

Activities;

- Designing and implementing Need assessments to identify the participatory interventions in sustainable development activities in Agro/Dairy/Craft sectors at grass root level.
- Organizing and conducting awareness and Training & Development Programmes at Producer level/stakeholder levels.
- Analyzing the data and information to facilitate the design process of INGO/Private/Public Sectors.
- Organizing workshops /Meetings and Exhibitions
- Conducting Training and Development activities in Agro/Dairy sectors/Milk Processing
- Conducting surveys and evaluation of impacts on services.

- Creating Concept Papers/Proposal writing/Business Development

Work accomplished

Livelihood Development of fishing community Through participatory Development - Formation of registered fishermen enterprises as business ventures to take control of the management of the fishing activities in reservoirs and house hold income generating activities of fishing families in Kurunegala district of North Western province.-Client-

ADB/NAQDA

Preparation of documentation need to present to the parliamentary to gazette in exclusive rights for sale.

Establish a mobile enable network of livestock farmers who will be provided technical assistance through data/voice/SMS/methods via an e- service centre- Established dairy farmer forum with 400 members. Practicing SMS methods in obtaining their extension services with improved milk yield & productivity-DDF/ICTA

Get rid of poverty and malnutrition in a control environment through sustainable livestock development- Identifying and selection of potential farmers and Strengthening the relationship of the stake holders through need assessments and relevant interventions in filling the gaps. –

LO Entergrowth

Implementing the strategic activities, expanding the paths of micro and small entrepreneurs to get access to the marke t with their services and products enabling them to capture a substantial market segment and realizing the effect of packaging in entering to new market-Participatory value chain development process with all the stake holders such as packaging material suppliers, packaging equipment suppliers, Service providers, consultants, experts in standards, food safety ,rule & regulation towards development of a concrete set of proposals in accordance with the constrains, opportunities and bottle necks identified in the value chain process to identify the potential hosts to implement the final on way forward proposals-

ILO Entergrowth

Developing fruit base product for children addressing the nutritional aspects of the children and an energy supplement to be acceptable to adults.- Developing product suitable for children addressing the nutritional aspects and energy drink for adults and come out with an appropriate formula.-Swiss contact

Carried out need assessment to identify potential farmers, gaps and interventions and prepared the imple menting proposal for capacity building of the farmers= Preparing a proposal
Dairy Activities as viable and sustainable enterprises to create opportunities towards better livelihood and as a tool of eradicating poverty and economic growth.

LILI Dairy

Design and establishing an outgrow system consist with 500 growers, mainly women to carry out Production of Oyster and Abalone mushroom through mobilizing, capacity building and relevant training & Development activities..= Selected 500 farmers through participatory need assessment process and made them into 10 member groups with a self appointed leader and carried out awareness programmes to develop their capacities and attitude changing and micro business management followed with appropriate technology transfer at village level by the private sector experts of the company along with an extension scheme to manage the value chain included production of seeds/distribution/training & Development/appropriate technology transfer/extension follow up /collection of the yield and assured in time payment systems-Nature Harvest

Vision | Misson

Written by SPDC

Sunday, 01 November 2009 11:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 June 2011 11:20
